WELCOME

Well, we're off to a great start this season. March's show was a success with 167 entries and 25 new members. Karen has got an exciting Spring and Fall High Point Series planned with awards in almost every class. The APHA has been brought on board and there is a great three-day show planned for Memorial Day Week-end.

And, Hey,

NO ONE CAN SAY WE DON'T HAVE FRESH COWS!!!

2005 NRCHA Open Hackamore National Champion

2005 NRCHA Limited Open Hackamore Reserve National Champion

Congratulations to Danny and Donna Perkins and Joe Harper for picking up this honor at the 2005 NRCHA Awards Banquet on February 26, 2005. CD Millennium, owned by the Perkins and trained and shown by Joe Harper, picked up these awards at the end of the 2005 season. CD Millennium was also the 2005 HDRCHA High Point Open Horse along with High Point awards in the Jr. Open Cutting, Jr. Open Reining, Open and Limited Open Hackamore classes. CD is currently standing at stud along with their other stallion, Peppy Jay Lena, at the Perkins' residence.

ABOUT THE HDRCHA

Based out of Fredericksburg, Indiana, the Hoosier Daddy Reined Cow Horse Association was founded in July 2004 by Dave Phillips and Karen Nicholson. The first show was held at the Clark County Fairgrounds in September 2004 with 37 participants. In December 2004, the association moved to its current home at Blair Arena in Madison, Indiana. A new stall barn was completed in 2005 for a total of 60 stalls available along with camper hook-up sites. By October 2005, 51 participants competed in events.

Dave and Karen's main goal for the show is for every participant to have fun. After the show on Saturday, you can hang around for some of the best BBQ ribs you have ever tasted along with live music and the "Daddy's Choice" event. This could range from a slide off, a barrel race to a shovel race - laughter guaranteed.

Please join us for a great time and some memorable experiences. Don't forget those ribs!

Membership in the HDRCHA is $35 for single and $50 for a family and is good for the calendar year.
